

In memory of my old friend.

Henry J. Younger Esq

---

"The Laird O' Benmore"

Theres a hush in the "Glen"
Theres a tear on the cheek,
O' the women and men,
And a sigh when they speak,
Theres an ache at each heart;
That lives in the Glen,
For the "Laird", was a man
Well respected, O' men,
But "Gods" will; he done
Tho, it makes our hearts sore,
He, has taen awa frae us;
The Laird O' Benmore.

Harry J. Younger

---

April 3rd
1913